

Honolulu. WASHINGTON PLACE, Beretania and Miller Sts., c. 1846, Isaac Hart, builder. 1st story coral stone, stuccoed and scored, 2nd story frame, clapboarding; 2 stories, modified L shape, hipped roof with deck and flat roof sections, denticulated cornice front center entrance with fanlight and side lights, front facade recessed behind balustraded 2-story lanai or porch with 1st-story piers and 2nd-story Tuscan columns, porte-cochere with piers projects center front, side covered terrace, rear wings; some original furnishings, porte-cochere, rear glassed-in lanai, and rear 1-story wing added 1922; covered terrace built 1954, TV room added above rear lanai 1959. Greek Revival elements. State's oldest continuously occupied residence; named in honor of George Washington by U.S. Commissioner Anthony TenEyck; late-19th C. home of Queene Liliuokalani, state's executive mansion since 1921. State: HABS.